Let's Walk For Funds

It's not just about the fund raising

Sure it sounds suspicious when economists say money isn't important, but it's true! Econs Walk is about having fun as much as it is about having the fund (get it?). And if this wordplay impresses you, wait till you see the trails we have carefully mapped out. They will take you past all the familiar sites, but this time surrounded by the natural beauty of our campus. Yes, you will reminisce together about those favorite stats classes and last-minute submissions... but this time in a fond way. Jokes aside, a walk feels like the healthiest and happiest way to rekindle old ties and reconnect with our dear alma mater.

Sounds great! How do I join?

1. First, follow the link below and fill in the form
